

General Facts Regarding Hand Sanitizers

Topic	Official Claim	Notes
The product is intended for	Human use only Applied externally only (hands have been added)	Wrist and forearms are OK, no where else Not for use on inanimate objects kitchen counter, bathroom, etc.
Type of product	Sanitizers for use without water Sanitizers for use with water (rinse)
Regulated by	The Food and Drug Administration	Our hand sanitizer product are not regulated by EPA and are not designed or tested to offered for anti-microbial (cleaners) use on inanimate surfaces or objects, such as kitchen counter, bathroom, etc.
Regulated under	Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Title 21, Part 333, subpart E Entitled: TOPICAL ANTIMICROBIAL PRODUCTS FOR OVER-THE-COUNTER Human Use	This is referred to as the "Monograph" The Monograph is a Tentative Final Regulation
Purpose	Antiseptic Antiseptic hand wash	Either or both of these terms may be used
Use(s) or "indications" for use	For hand washing to decrease bacteria on the skin May also include after changing diapers after assisting ill persons before contact with a person under medical care or treatment Recommended for repeated use	This product does not "sterilize", Sterilization is defined by a completely different and more rigid criteria. Please note that hand sanitizer products are limited to decreasing bacteria on the skin only
Other truthful claims describing only the Use(s)/indications above	Not official but supported by testing Claim: Kills 99.99% of Germs* Disclaimer: *Effective at eliminating 99.99% of many common harmful germs and bacteria in as little as 15 seconds	This claim may only be used with the Disclaimer also appearing in the labeling Testing performed according to "Monograph" procedure